

CIRCULATION: TO SOLIDARITY COMMITTEE

AS THE HOUR OF LIBERATION HAS COME

The long awaited political film about the revolution in Oman and the Arabian Gulf is ready. It has been screened at the Cannes Festival and won acclaim by the progressive critics.

The film has been financed by the contributions of Solidarity Committees, students and (Yemeni workers in Britain) until the lonely copy was ready.

As you know more copies are required for further participation in other festivals and shows.

We, therefore, call upon the Solidarity Committees to buy their copies.

The cost of one copy subtitled around f.f. 8000
