SADAT ADDS NEW TREASON TO HIS TRAITOROUS ACCOUNT

Since the first day of the convention of the Camp David conference the eyes of the world and in particular those concerned with the Middle East affairs remained focussed on the site of the conference to follow up with great attention the progress of talks. They have been more attracted by the great secrecy that enshrouded the talks.

Throughout the convention of the conference speculations of an extensive nature spread up on what would result from the Camp David annuference. But it appears that the results came to disappoint those who were believing in and expecting great hopes to them and expected that the conference would come out with a reasonable solution at least pleasing all parties topped by the Palestinian party whose issue constitutes the zone of the conflict.

This was the expectation of one group of those who are following up the Camp David talks. But as regards ourselves we the Arabs who reject the submissive solutions and ask for just solution of the Palestinian

DEMOCRATIC YEMEN RENEWS SUPPORT FOR STRUGGLE OF OUR OMANI PEOPLE.

Democratic Yemen affirmed its backing and support for the heroic struggle waged by the Omani people under the leadership of the People's Front for the Liberation of Oman. This came in the speech made by Comrade Salem Saleh, Member of the Central Committee of the Unified National Front Political Organisation and Secretary of the External Relations at the CC Secretariat, at the International Conference for Solidarity with the Struggle of the African and Arab peoples against imperialism and reaction which was held in Addis Ababa during the period 15th to 18th September, 1978.

EDITORIALDAMASCUS SUMMIT*Of FRONT OF STEADFASTNESS DEFINED POINTS OF NATIONAL ANSWER.

Two do not differ that at the dangers being faced by the Arab revolutionary movement today are only by the start for the imperialist-zionist offensive for which Sadat is now constituting the bridge. The offensive started against it and fiercely ever since the morning of that damned day, the day when unity between Syria and Egypt was shattered in 1961 and the hope of the Arab masses was hit in the heart and that the attacks that followed that painful historical event in different parts of the Arab arena were only rings of the imperialist plan which aims at spreading up the American influence over the wealths of the Arab nation entirely, and to impose Israel as a reality, from the point of power, on the Arabs whether they accept or not.

The traitorous Sadat initiative to occupy Jerusalem in November last year followed by the Camp David agreements in September this year came to confirm the nature of the plan and its remote and close aims and to expose those who were hiding behind Arab and Islamic slogans and also to clearly reveal the Arab reactionary parties sunk in the plan whether they are silent or in support openly like the way used by Qaboos bin Saeed.

If the conference of the front of steadfastness and confrontation held in Tripoli and then in Algiers and also the Arab Popular Congress have expressed and represented the Arab counter-action at both official and popular levels to the Sadat traitorous visits, then the Damascus conference of the countries of steadfastness and confrontation with its historical resolutions gave a new impetus to the operation of confrontation of the imperialist-zionist offensive and foiling of its aims of which the Camp David resolutions constitute the most significant conspiratorial elements.

Undoubtedly the Damascus summit resolutions have defined the points of effective national answer to the two agreements of Camp David and responded by that to the feelings of the Arab nation which were astonished by the deeds of Sadat and his repeated national treasons. But the question of implementation remains to worry the mind of the Arab man who was looking at these critical circumstances to further serious work and the overcoming of all secondary differences which obstructed the procession of his holy struggle and to direct all efforts for the supreme objective and the remarkable practical answer to the traitorous settlement plan.

While praising the resolutions of the Damascus summit and regard them as a typical jump on the road of intensifying the struggle and escalating it in different Arab areas against the imperialist, zionist and reactionary enemy, we deem it necessary that the broad Arab progressive popular front is to be established at the massive level to undertake its historical role in leading the masses of the Arab nation in its holy battle against the imperialist, zionist and reactionary enemy and to constitute the permanent massive background for the countries of steadfastness for encircling the Camp David agreements and standing against the appearance of any others like the Sadat or his shameful acts.

In clear terms we see that the real answer to the American, Israeli, Sadat plan stands in converting the outcome of the Damascus summit from words to deeds and establishing the progressive Arab national front as a remarkable, lively and effect reality.

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE FOR SOLIDARITY WITH ARAB AFRICAN PEOPLES DEPLORES MILITARY INTERFERENCE IN OMAN

The International Conference for Solidarity With Arab and African Peoples which was held in Addis Ababa from 14th to 17th September, 1978, addressed the following cable to Sultan Qaboos bin Saeed of Oman: "We deplore your unjust acts against the Omani people and political detainees and militants fighting for the freedom of Oman and for expelling the foreign invaders from Oman. We also deplored the Iranian interferences in the internal affairs of Oman and the Iranian military presence and ask you to release all political detainees immediately. We also ask you to halt the air raids against the unarmed people in Dhofar.

26TH SEPTEMBER - A REVOLUTION AGAINST IDOLISM AND THE REACTIONARY FORCES IN YEMEN

In the morning of 26th September, 1962, the sun of freedom appeared shining in the skies of Yemen sweeping by that long years of social and cultural subjugation. The rule of the Hamiduddin dynasty was representing one of the biggest types of backwardness and oppression by its primitive methods and thoughts. Since the forces of reaction and imperialism live in coordination and harmony between themselves in view of the link of their interests with each other, they were shocked by the birth of a national liberation revolution in Yemen. They immediately stood to rescue their panicked staunches in the north Yemen who escaped leaving behind them the trails of defeat and shame as a result of the mass revolution which peeped astride in Sanaa. This rescue was crystallised in the recruitment of mercenaries and their despatch to abort the revolution of the Yemeni people.

But the rally of the Yemeni masses around their revolution made the road difficult to harm that revolution.

The Sanaa blockade which lasted seventy days represented the peak of the steadfastness of the masses in the face of the enemies of the Yemeni people.

The oil regimes which saw in the glorious revolution of 26th September utter danger threatening them, earmarked hundreds of millions for bringing back the symbols of idolism to power in Yemen. The forces of imperialism and reaction topped by the United States of America and Saudi Arabia constituted the sworn enemy of the Yemeni people.

THE MUSCAT REGIME AND CAMP DAVID CONFERENCE

At a time in which the texts of the two agreements of Camp David receive denunciation and resentment from the Arab masses represented by their national and progressive forces and from many of the national Arab regimes topped by the countries of the front of steadfastness and confrontation, the official spokesman of the Sultanate's Foreign Ministry appears with the following statement:- "Sultan Qaboos sees that the Camp David summit results cover positive spheres and that American President Jimmy Carter made great efforts during the Camp David meetings and that Sadat's visit to Jerusalem laid down the basis for the establishment of progress in Camp David. It is natural that there appears differences in viewpoints between the Arab countries in connection with the Camp David results but this must not lead to deepening of differences existing between them and particular between the Arab countries concerned with the Middle East problem and work must be done to narrow the gap of differences existing between them and to back up and consolidate the Arab solidarity for achieving a settlement for the Middle East crisis.

This statement made by the spokesman of the regime in Muscat crystallises the real stand of the Qaboos sultanate which does not differ to the previous stands of the regime towards the traitorous Sadat visit to occupied Jerusalem which was blessed by the Qaboos and his regime amongst the first Arab countries which supported that damned visit.

The puppet regime in Muscat is today unleashing its ugly face by coming out openly from the Arab collectivity and deviating it through his support for the two agreements of Camp David which were deplored and resented by the national and progressive Arab masses in view of the forfeitures contained in them in favour of the Zionist enemy and negligence of the legitimate Arab rights for which the Arabs incurred thousands of martyrs ever since the start of the Arab-Israeli conflict.

The puppet regime revealed its stands towards the main national issues for the second time after such stands have become revealed towards the Omani national issues since whoever depends upon the invaders, mercenaries and foreigners to soil the homeland and kill the masses of his people finds it easy to betray the Arab nation and its fateful issues.

Here we have the right to ask the sultanate official spokesman: what are the positive aspects govered by the Camp David summit results? Since the spokesman is only in fact one of the elements directed by the others who draw up the Omani policy in the Sultanate he will definitely fail to answer the question except after reverting back to those masters hiding behind their air-conditioned offices.

The Arab masses in general and the Omani masses in particular which oppose the Muscat regime and its traitorous policy, are not in need to the answer because they feel satisfied that the puppets and reactionaries are revealing themselves. The Camp David agreement did not drop the rights of the Palestinian people but also dropped the rights of the Syrian and Egyptian peoples for sovereignty over their lands in occupied Palestine Golan and Sinai but even shattered the rights of the entire Arab people. Certainly then these are the positive aspects meant by Qaboos and his official spokesman.

SEPTEMBER-PRELUDES AND RESULTS

the 8th anniversary which is full of wonderful heroisms recorded by the Arab masses in the Jordanian arena against the Jordanian puppet regime which is strategically linked with the circles of imperialism and their Arab reactionary instruments in the area, and which took up the responsibility of slaying the Palestine revolution and the Arab national liberation movement which is in collusion with the Palestine revolution, is now passing.

On the morning of 16th September, 1979, the hiring forces in Jordan carried out an extensive and fierce attack against the camps of the Palestinians and centres of the revolution in the capital and outside it using in their attack up-to-date destructive weapons in addition to the great role played by the American and Jordanian intelligence machineries in the field of information issue based on formation of a Palestinian State under which live all religions away from religious and sectarian reluctance are not surprised by the results of the Camp David talks as we have been expecting that the Sadat vessel is not going to return with a colour other than that chosen by the White House and painted in the Camp David. This is for one simple reason and this is that Sadat was not ever since his traitorous initiative behaving away from what is wanted by the United States of America and formerly dear Henry and now friend Carter. So the man is implementing and sincerely what is dictated to him by his role in the American Intelligence and never having any link with Egypt nor with the Egyptian people or the Arab nation of whose interests he is boasting to be careful and to be incurring sacrifices for them. By signing the two Camp David agreements, Sadat crowns a chain of treasons against the Arab nation and the Palestinian cause and challenged the aspirations of the Egyptian people and their sacrifices and blood of their heroes which smeared the soil of Egypt, Palestine and Yemen in defence of the Arab territories and in defence of the Arab prestige and for defending and liberating the Arab nation.

Now and after the man reached the bottom of treason and behaved in accordance with the role drawn up for him in the American-zionist-reactionary plan with the backing and encouragement of America's regimes in the Arab area ever since the traitorous initiative upto the Camp David summit in which he (Sadat) submitted to Carter and Begin, yet he (Sadat) will not be content with this size of treason but will continue work with the backing of America to pull further traitorous of the type to the same dump.

Such a serious situation has placed the front of confrontation and steadfastness, which held its meetings in Damascus, in front of great historical responsibilities, backed by the masses of the Arab nation represented by their national and progressive progressive forces, to seriously and firmly stand for foiling the American-zionist-reactionary march through the Sadat regime.

In our belief the correct and practical reply to the treasons of Sadat and the hitting of the American-zionist plan which aims at subjugating the Arabs and continuing the American hegemony over the total wealths of the Arabs, is summarised in the following:-

1) Strengthening of the front of confrontation & steadfastness and to convince Iraq with its vast potentialities, to join it on the consideration that it constitutes the strategic depth for Syria.

2) Unification of all Arab national and progressive forces in one broad front whose task is to consolidate the front of steadfastness and confrontation. This front is to be equipped with the principle of the armed struggle and long-term war until the national and patriotic objectives of the Arab nation are realised in full.

3) to work for condemning all secondary differences and burying them between the parties of both fronts and to rise up to the level of the historical responsibility imposed by the current circumstances of the challenge by the Arab nation and to place the interests of the nation above all considerations.

We realise that realisation of these tasks, even if partial in comparison with the ambitions of our Arab nation and its wishes for freedom, socialism and social progress, are not simple under the present divisions and differences spreading within their ranks. Yet if we are able to realise these three points stage by stage we can say that we, in the turmoil of the battle with the imperialist and zionist enemy, are capable of overcoming further difficulties and problems that face us. The important here is not to talk but to work seriously and sincerely as all are needed to work and are responsible historically for the people and coming generations.
